MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to know that Annada College, Hazaribag is organizing a National Seminar on 19th & 20th December 2024 on the topic 'Trans-disciplinary aspects of Research in Global perspective'.

Research in any field opens new avenues for further development and brings about multi-field development. The selected topic is very relevant in the present perspective as specially the researchers, scholars and students would be made aware of the scientific and technical approaches for multi-disciplinary research. The Seminar would enlighten all the participants and audience on the trans-disciplinary aspects of research in the global perspective.

My best wishes to the organizers, participants and all others for the successful conduct of the seminar.
